

Violence in The Passion of the Christ: Fault Lines and Conflicts in American Christianity

Prof. Julie Ingersoll
Department of Philosophy and
Religious Studies
University of North Florida

Tuesday, November 9, 2004
12:30-1:45 pm
Student Services 101F

The Department of Religious Studies is sponsoring an informal, lunchtime discussion for all REL faculty, majors, and minors, on two chapters from the forthcoming edited collection of essays, After The Passion Is Gone: American Religious Consequences (AltaMira Press, 2004), one of which was written by Prof. Ingersoll, and the other by University of California, Santa Barbara, doctoral student, Leslie Smith.

Students and faculty interested in attending this event can sign-up at the REL main office (Manly 212) and obtain their copies of the two chapters (to be read prior to the event).

Lunch will be provided

More information on the book can be found at:
<http://www.altamirapress.com>

This event is made possible by the College of Arts & Sciences Anonymous Lecture Fund