FIGHTING THE DEVIL IN DIXIE

with Alabama author,

Wayne Greenhaw

Wayne Greenhaw will speak and sign copies latest book, Fighting the Devil in Dixie: How Civil Rights Activists Took on the Ku Klux Klan in Alabama - the most comprehensive, dramatic, nonfiction account of what happened after the U.S. Supreme Court found unconstitutional Montgomery's city ordinance requiring segregation of races on public transportation.

"Wayne Greenhaw's Fighting the Devil in Dixie does more than take you behind the picket lines, along the dark country roads and under the white hoods of the civil rights struggle. It takes you inside its very skin, and inside the South's broken heart. Wayne did not just cover this era, he lived it, really lived it, in conscience, in soul as well as mind. I'm glad this book got made, and glad he did it."
-- Rick Bragg,

"Wayne Greenhaw is the best writer to come out of Alabama since Harper Lee."
-- Winston Groom

Talk begins at 5:30 pm on Wednesday, February 2, 2011
W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library,
2nd floor Mary Harmon Bryant Hall on the UA campus

A book signing and reception will follow the talk. This event is free and open to the public!
