To further develop the collaborative relationship with Aristotle University in Thessaloniki (AUTH) after Dean Olin’s visit last May, a call for proposals was developed to identify a delegation of UA faculty who will travel to Thessaloniki with Associate Dean Han from May 4 until May 11, 2014, to present their research and to meet AUTH faculty working in related areas. The College’s committee has met and narrowed the more than 40 faculty applications to 11. Those proposals have been sent to Aristotle University for their input. A final group of five or six faculty members are expected to be selected.

The College will bring Aristotle University’s dean of the College of Arts and Sciences to Tuscaloosa in March 2014.
